AJ Nealey Racing's Decadent Proposal Pop the Question on a Race Car

Edgewater, MD - February 9, 2009 - Suitors can now guarantee her heart will race when they pop the question. Race car driver AJ Nealey offers a “Decadent Proposal” package on his VW Cup car, which he will be racing in the Volkswagen Jetta TDI Cup racing series this year. The “Decadent Proposal” package features a proposal as a graphic on the car during a race weekend. Each package is $10,000 and includes car signage, two tickets to the race, two tickets to the VIP tent, a VIP tour of the pit and photos with the car and driver AJ Nealey. To secure a Decadent Proposal package, visit www.AJNealeyRacing.com.

“I can’t imagine a more nerve-wracking experience than to ask a girl to marry you,” said AJ Nealey, who hits speeds of up to 140 mph while on the track.

AJ Nealey, who has been racing since he was 18 and has won more than 40 races, qualified on February 5 to join the 2009 Volkswagen Jetta TDI Cup. Nealey will compete in 10 races across the country including one in Canada. Races start in April and run through September 2009.

“The big race now is for sponsors,” said Nealey who will be meeting with potential sponsors to discuss the benefits of having their brand on his car that will have exposure in print, TV, email, internet and at 10 race tracks across the country. Sponsorship packages start at $10,000 for a door panel graphic on the car for one weekend.

The Volkswagen Jetta TDI cup, which is sanctioned by SCCA Pro Racing, is the only Clean Diesel racing series of its kind. Drivers will compete in 30 identical Clean Diesel racecars as they contend for $100,000 in the world's first green racing series. For more information about the Volkswagen Jetta TDI Cup, visit www.vwmotorsportusa.com.

AJ Nealey, a 25 year-old racecar driver, will be competing in the 2009 VW Jetta TDI Cup. He has set an ITA track record at Summit Point Raceway, is the recipient of the Dick Lord Trophy, and is a MARRS ITA Champion. Nealey lives in Edgewater, MD.
