

Anglers Cast their lines to Hotel Caravelle
Fish With Carl Package Includes Accommodations, Dinner and Fishing Expedition

St. Croix, US Virgin Islands – 2008 - Hotel Caravelle, located on the tropical island of St. Croix, is luring anglers to with their Fish With Carl package. The package is $949 per couple April 15 through December 14, 2008 ($1149 per couple from Dec 15 through April 14, 2009). The rate includes accommodations for a three-night stay, breakfast daily and a half-day fishing excursion with Captain Carl Holley.

“The waters around St Croix are rich with nutrients and deep – a perfect environment for a variety of fish,” stated captain Carl Holley who has been fishing the waters of St Croix since 2002, “What you catch depends on what time of year it is. You can catch mahi-mahi, wahoo, tuna, and for the ultimate fight, sailfish and marlin.”

The Fish With Carl package is ideal for travelers who love the ocean as well as the thrill of deep-sea fishing. Charters are on "The Mocko Jumbie," a 36-foot Hatteras. The boat has a GPS tracking and plotting system, which is marked with all the best fishing spots. The package features accommodations (double occupancy) for three nights; a half-day fishing excursion; all the necessary equipment including rods and reels; and instruction in casting, and bringing them in. Also included is breakfast daily at rumrunners, the award-winning restaurant at Hotel Caravelle. The package is $899 per couple.
