

Hotel Caravelle of St. Croix Makes a Splash with Wedding Package Wedding Package invites Couples to Tie the Knot Under the Sea

St. Croix - US Virgin Islands –2008 - Hotel Caravelle, located on the romantic island of St. Croix, US Virgin Islands, is making a splash with their Wet Wedding Package where couples tie the knot under the sea. The full service package, which includes dive gear, minister and a three-night stay is just $1499 now through April 14 and $1299 from April 15 through December 14.

The largest under water wedding, according to the Guinness Book of World Records, was held on St. Croix on September 13, 2003, where 103 guests attended the underwater wedding ceremony of John Santino and fiancée Toni Wilson.

"We came to St Croix to dive and find the underwater world to be absolutely stunning," stated groom John Santino of New Hampshire. "So it was the only place we could imagine exchanging vows."

Couples wanting to tie the knot under the sea can do so for just $1440 for a four-day/three-night package. Hotel Caravelle's Wet Wedding Package includes accommodations, two dives, marriage services performed by Captain Ed Buckley (includes consultation, ceremony and filing of documents), a candle light dinner at Hotel Caravelle's waterfront restaurant, his and hers T-Shirts, champagne and flowers in the guest room and a choice of a Buck Island or Safari land tour. All taxes and service charges are included. The marriage license ($100) is additional. Rates are valid now through December 15, 2007.
